

NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.

OFFICIAL. LIST OF LETTERS.

CRIME WITH OUT.—It will be remembered by our readers that the barn, shed and dwelling of Mr. Godstow, N. H., were consumed by fire in the dead of night with nearly all their contents, two of the children also coming near to perishing in the flames. There was no doubt of the being the act of an incendiary, though the cause of the fire was not ascertained. We learn that all is at length made plain. Robert D. Chapman of Manchester has been arrested, convicted and made confidant of doing the deed and been committed to prison to await trial. No suspicion had fastened upon him till recently, and upon his arrival he endeavored to set the fire, and was detected by his brother, John Chapman, the owner of the house, but residing near Boston, for which service he was to receive the sum of $100. The design was to secure the insurance money, and the sum for which financial arrangement he expected to realize more than the value of the buildings and the land would give.

We understand that the principal in the crime has been brought back to the State, and bound over in heavy bonds to appear at the next Court. [Conc. Jour.]

FIRE.—On Thursday last, about 2 o'clock, flames were perceived bursting through the roof of a house well known to all in the neighborhood. The fire spread so rapidly that not the least hope was entertained of saving the building, and the efforts of our citizens were devoted to saving what they could of the furniture, &c., and to the preservation of the neighboring buildings. [Whitman Democrat, Dec. 2nd.]
